

NOTICIAS DE LA SEMANA:

Don't Forget: No school Monday in observance of Columbus Day!

Back to School Night, Tues., Oct. 11th, 6:30-8pm: Join us for an informative evening, where you will get to meet all of your child's teachers, hear about the curriculum and classroom initiatives, ask questions and meet other parents.

6:30-7:30pm K and 1st Grade parents visit the classrooms

6:30-7:00pm 2nd and 3rd Grade parents meet with specials teachers in the gym

7:00-8:00pm 2nd and 3rd Grade parents visit the classrooms

7:30-8:00pm K and 1st Grade parents meet with specials teachers in the gym

HoLa Student Directory 2011-12: This month, each family will receive a School Directory and can contact other parents for play dates, parties, or homework questions! Every student will be listed by class, but all contact information is optional. Please click the following link to indicate how you would like your information to appear in this year's directory: <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/5X5J2KM>

For those with limited online access, a hard copy form will be available in the PTO box outside the gym, and at Back to School Night. Please submit your contact information by Oct. 14th at 5pm, so that we may print and distribute the directories. Please note: the student directory is provided free of charge to HoLa families; for reasons of privacy and safety, the directory is published solely for the HoLa community.

1st Grade Class Coffee, Fri., Oct. 14th, 8-9am: This is a chance for you to chat over a quick cup of coffee with other 1st Grade parents, then head up to the classrooms to observe Morning Meeting and see our teachers and students in action. Please contact your Class Parents if you are able to bring any breakfast foods to share.

HoLa Store: Orders for school logo gear are due Oct. 12th. Last day to view samples will be Oct. 11th at Back to School Night. Questions? store@holahoboken.org

Jumpstart's Read for the Record: Yesterday, HoLa participated in this shared reading event for the second year in a row (<http://www.readfortherecord.com>), when children and teachers listened in their pajamas as volunteers from Pearson NY read La llama Llama rojo pijama, then enjoyed crafts and activities such as making Llama face masks. Each child went home with his or her own copy of the book along with certificates and stickers. For an English copy of the book that can be read online please visit <http://www.wegivebooks.org/books/llama-llama-red-pajama>

Playground Update: Good News! City Council approved the contract to build the new Jefferson Street playground at their meeting on Oct. 5. The project will commence shortly and is expected to be completed by the end of 2011!

¡Gracias! Thanks to Mimi Park for creating our new admissions / outreach materials, and to Corinna Kramer for stuffing folders for the HFA open house. Also thank you to our parent volunteers for helping out at the event: Meltem Paker and Shan Gettens. Thank you to Lori Heidenry for donating tools for our school garden!

Hoboken Public Library celebrates Hispanic Heritage Month with Inkarayku, Wed., Oct. 12th, 6pm: This musical group seeks to preserve and promote Andean arts and culture through the performance and education of indigenous music. Join them for a concert featuring the indigenous flutes of Peru, Bolivia and Ecuador.

God of Carnage at Mile Square Theatre, Oct. 6th-23rd, a play about bullying and parenting by Yasmina Reza. In this "comedy of bad manners," a pair of parents meet to discuss a bullying incident between their 11-year-old sons. Intending to deal civilly with the matter and arrive at a teachable moment for their children, the afternoon deteriorates, resulting in a comic tour de force. 720 Monroe Street, 2nd Floor. Resv., 201.683.7014. Tickets: $25 / Thurs., Oct. 13th is "Pay What You Will Night"!

¡Hola!

Halloween & Dia de los Muertos Party!

October
22nd
3-6pm

in the Hola gym.

Games! Raffles! Crafts! Food! Authentic Latin desserts! ...And a dance party!

Suggested Donation: $10 per family at the door.

We hope that our generous Hola families will also consider baking a tasty treat for our party goers!

In honor of Hispanic Heritage month, something with a Latin flair would be excellent.

This event is for Hola students and families.

Please RSVP to holahalloweenparty.eventbrite.com by October 14th.

You can let us know if you will be baking by clicking on the "Contact the Host" button in the online invite.

We encourage the whole family to arrive in costume!
